JUDGMENT

Heard.

Without expressing anything on merits on the controversy and rival submissions between the petitioner and the contesting private respondents, this writ petition is disposed of directing that Ext.P7 shall be taken up, considered and disposed by the competent among the official respondents in accordance with law, after affording opportunity of hearing to the petitioner and to the contesting respondents. Such final decision shall be taken, at any rate, within a period of four months from the date of receipt of a copy of this judgment.
